Welcome to November - The Month of Remembrance!

Remembrance 2020

11 NOVEMBER
REMEMBRANCE DAY

Lest we forget

In November, Canadians remember. We declare “Lest we forget” - a phrase commonly used in English speaking countries. It reminds us of our responsibility to work for peace and to honour the soldiers who fought and those who continue to fight so hard on our behalf to achieve and maintain it.

Crazy October Weather

from fall to dead of winter (Idiom: dead of winter - the middle of winter) to fall again

October has definitely been the month of crazy weather. We went from our beautiful Canadian fall season, into a very cold winter season and then back to fall again. Our weather broke records for one of the earliest snow falls in recorded history and the coldest temperatures every for October.

Let's hope for a bit more fall sunshine, with its warmer temperatures, before winter comes back again in full force.

(Idiom: in full force - a lot of energy and determination.)

Remembering the last few years - Tara and Gioia and the birth of Language for Life

As we slowly approach the end of another year, Tara and I are grateful for all of you who have joined us on our crazy journey to where we are today. Some of you have been with us since the beginning, other have joined us along the way and we are truly grateful for all of you!! 2020 brought with it COVID-19 and yet Language for Life has continued to go strong.

(Idiom: go strong - to proceed energetically or successfully)

Despite many challenges over the last few years, Tara and I have stayed true to our vision: to provide affordable English instruction to everyone, regardless of their immigration status. Language for life wants to be a place of community and acceptance and most of all - a place of fun and enjoyable english learning!

We continue to laugh, celebrate, shed tears, make meaningful connections and friends. So far it has been a blast (Idiom: a blast - a very fun and exciting time) with all of you!!

Let us share some of our great memories with you this month:

Thanks for the memories!!
We look forward to MANY more!!
